Meeting Room Use Policy

Introduction

It is the policy of the Cranbury Public Library (the Library) to provide a meeting room to the community as a public service. Use of this room does not constitute an endorsement by the Library of either programs or point of view expressed therein. The meeting room is available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of the organizations requesting its use.

Eligibility for Use

In scheduling use of the meeting room, priority is given to programs administered or sponsored by the Library and organizations directly affiliated with the Library. In addition, permission may be granted for the following uses, in order of priority and based upon availability:

- Township departments, agencies or commissions.
- Neighborhood and community organizations based in Cranbury.
- Other non-profit public and/or social service organizations.

Restrictions on Use

The following uses are not permitted:

- Meetings not open to the public, with the exception of those closed meetings of legislative and policy bodies authorized under the New Jersey Open Public Meetings Act.
- Fund-raisers not affiliated with the Library.
- Youth programs with adult supervision of less than 2 adults, or less than 1 adult per 10 children.
- Meetings in excess of the legal capacity of the meeting room, i.e., 30 persons.
- Meetings scheduled outside of normal Library operating hours.
- Private parties or receptions.

Reservations

- Reservations may be made in phone or in person at least two (2) weeks prior to the requested date. Application must be made in writing.
- The Library director or staff must give formal approval. Reservations will be made in order of priority as indicated above and by date of request.
- The number and frequency of meetings booked by any one organization will be at the discretion of the Library director, based upon availability of the room. No one organization may monopolize use of the meeting room. Multiple, related meetings may be reserved on a single application.
- Applications for meetings of children or teens must be sponsored and signed by an adult who will assume full responsibility.
- Permission to use the meeting room is revocable and does not constitute a lease.

Regulations regarding use and care of Meeting Space

- No organization may charge admission or collect fees as a requirement of participation.
- All meetings must be open to the public.
- Organizations may not use the Library's address or phone number for publicity purposes, nor imply endorsement or co-sponsorship of events/meetings by the Library. In the event that an organization inappropriately states or implies Library endorsement or co-sponsorship it must advertise a retraction if requested by the Library.
- Organizations must provide personnel to set-up, clean-up, arrange tables, etc. Library personnel are not available to assist with audio-visual equipment, carrying materials from parking areas to the meeting room or setting-up or serving refreshments, nor can personnel be expected to answer telephone inquiries for organizations using the meeting room.
- The Library will not provide storage for the property of any organization that meets in the Library.
- With prior approval of the director, organizations may serve light refreshments. Clean up is the sole responsibility of the organization. The library does not supply coffeepots or other refreshment supplies.
- The meeting room is to be returned to the condition in which it was found. The organization's representative, as indicated on the reservation form, is responsible for damages.
- Set up and clean up must take place within the time allotted for the meeting. A custodial fee will be charged if the room is not left in a clean and orderly condition
- Meetings must end at least 15 minutes prior to the Library's closing time.
- The Library reserves the right to attend any meeting held in its facilities to ensure no unlawful activities are occurring on Library premises.
- Smoking and alcoholic beverages are prohibited.

Cancellations, Denial of Application, Appeals

- Any cancellation on the part of an applicant organization should be made at least 24 hours before the scheduled meeting date.
- In the event that the Library must close due to unforeseen equipment failure or a weather-related emergency, all efforts will be made to notify organizations scheduled to use the meeting room.
- The Library reserves the right to cancel a meeting room reservation in the event of unforeseen Library demands.
- The Library reserves the right to deny meeting rooms to organizations that frequently cancel meetings, that do not notify the Library of canceled meetings or consistently overstay their reserved time.
- The Library also reserves the right to deny meeting room use to organizations that fail to return the room to a clean and orderly condition or to charge said organization a deposit for custodial services.
- Denial of application may be appealed to the Cranbury Public Library Board of Trustees by following the Cranbury Public Library Patron Appeal Process.

Other Applicable Regulations

All rules and regulations as outlined in Library policy documents apply to meeting room usage. Applicants are expected to be familiar with all Library policies, including the Library Use Policy.

Waiver of Regulations

Exceptions from specific regulations of this policy may be authorized for the Library and its programs, for the Friends of the Cranbury Public Library, Boards and Agencies of the Township of Cranbury, Middlesex County, or the State of New Jersey.
